MUSTER IN GUARD AT CAMP ORDWAY

Two Batteries Are Passed to Doctors for Physical Examination. Batteries A and B, of the District National Guard, were mustered into Federal service at Camp Ordway. Florids avenue and Fourth street, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, by Major A. C. Thompson, Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., who was assisted by members of his staff. The muster of the artillerists completed the process as the cavalry and other units had been sworn in the first day. The ceremony was an impressive picture. The batteries, 140 strong each was formed in line by their offi-cers, in columns. Each man answered to his name at roll call and stepped two paces to the front. Upon being identified he was passed, subject to

As it is now, the cavalry squadron has one horse for each three troopers. It would appear most unmilitary for the troopers to ride "double." so it is more than likely, according to an announcement made yesterday by the nouncement made yesterday by the Militia Bureau of the War Depart-ment, that the few horses they have will be taken from them at an early

CONGRESS MAY NOT ADJOURN UNTIL OCT. 1

Indications are that Congress will hot get through its business before October I. Some members say that adjournment will not come before November 1. No one will risk a definite prophecy, but all are willing to bet the predicted adjournment by August 15 will not come to pass.

Business might have been rushed, they say, so that members could go home for a short visit in September had not Secretary McAdoo come along with a request of a war budget so huge that it paralyzed the mere thought of moving for the next ten weeks.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union, and was presided over by the national commander of the union, Gen. H. Oden Lake. In stating the object of the meeting, Gen. Gen. Lake pointed out that there must be about 5.000 former soldiers, marines and saliors residing in Washington, who would be willing to volunteer for service in connection with the guard ling of government property, vital to the conduct of the war. These men, he pointed out, would be needed to take the place of the National Guard, which will be drafted into the regular army on August 5, and sent to training camps in the South.

Col. Julius E. Albrecht, who followed Gen, Lake, in an address declared that with the "get away" in a few weeks of what has been in the past, the District National Guard, but which is now the District's first quota of Uncle Sam's new army, the Capitai of the nation would be without adequate military protection unless previous service men volunteer.

All of the speakers expressed the opinion that in the event of disorders, on a large scale in the city, where the Capital guard would see called upon, the presence of rifles in the hands of the men of guard training would have a great moral effect.

The matter of securing arms and equipment, it was stated, will be taken up at once with Secretary of War Baker, and it is believed that the War Department will be only too glad to furnish the equipment in such quantities as it can be spared. Announcement was made at the close of the meeting that a rally for the purpose of electing officers and securing recruits will be held next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at 1320 New York avenue.
